

From the Desk of ...

Representative Steve King

Congressional District of Iowa

Remembering September 11th

September 2006

Five years ago there was no War on Terror. Early on a crisp fall day, time stood still as the world watched

Five years ago, America's heart ached as the devastation unfolded before our eyes. Five years ago, the

Five years ago, on September, 11, 2001, the world changed for Americans. We now live with the aware

The cost of our freedom was again highlighted that day, and it was renewed in the eyes of a generation

New security measures were put into place. Americans forever changed the way we look at air travel and

As fearful and shocked as Americans were that day, immediately Americans stepped in to help. Workers

The most important effect of Sept. 11th was the immediate pulling together of all Americans. Young and

If there is one message to bring home on the 5th anniversary of that tragic day, it is to remember to alwa

Remembering September 11th

Monday, September 11, 2006

We will go forward together and succeed in the latest challenge to American freedom.

This week, as you reflect on the changes made in the past five short years, please say a prayer for the f