

From the Desk of ...

Representative Steve King

Congressional District of Iowa

Celebrating our Freedoms

July 4, 2006

Two-hundred-thirty years ago, two and a half million people banded together as they chartered their way

They may not have known that they would change the world by building the example of liberty that would

As you watch the fireworks this year, imagine how our Founding Fathers felt as they saw the light of the

It was an ideal that to many may have seemed risky or difficult. Those doubters had no idea that the Uni

Long ago, my parents explained to me why we celebrate the birth of our country and our freedoms. We