

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Congressman Steve King, the ranking member on the House Immigration Subcommittee, will participate in a three day assessment of current border security efforts today through Friday, July 1-3. King and immigration enforcement officials will be at the United States/Mexico Border in Arizona to assess the effectiveness of current programs and to meet with key personnel.

WHAT: Assessment of Current Border Security Efforts

WHO: Congressman Steve King and immigration enforcement officials

WHEN: Wednesday-Friday, July 1-3

WHERE: United States/Mexico Border in Arizona