

The Orlando Political Press writes:

"...The Congressman from Iowa is as intelligent as any Ivy Leaguer, has a tireless work ethic forged in the heartland of America and brings a down to earth, common sense approach to legislating.

A staunch conservative that understands the real issues behind illegal immigration, King believes in the enforcement of our immigration laws. He's a strong supporter of securing our borders and eliminating the incentives that draw illegals to our country. King doesn't buy into the fallacy that these individuals are only taking jobs that Americans will not take and he supports legislation that would ban birthright citizenship, known as anchor babies..."

Read more at the following link: <http://www.orlandopoliticalpress.com/2010/11/24/rep-steve-king-to-lead-committee-governing-immigration-policy/>