

Congressman King Meets with Iowa Lakes Corridor Group

Wednesday, March 07, 2012

Washington, DC- Congressman Steve King released with following statement after he met with representatives of the Iowa Lakes Corridor Development Corporation today to discuss housing, transportation, and economic development issues important to businesses and communities in Buena Vista, Clay, Dickinson, and Emmet Counties.

Julie Johnson, Shaun Arneson, Ron Hanson, Curt Johnson, Tom Wonus, Congressman Steve King, Amber Hanson, Randy Swanson, Samantha Sullivan, Derick Anderson meet in Washington, DC.

"I enjoyed the opportunity to get an update on a number of the economic development projects that are advancing in the Iowa Lakes Corridor," said King. "This is an important region of our state, and I look forward to working with the leaders of the Corridor group to promote and preserve northwest Iowa as a desirable place to live, work and invest in new business opportunities."

###