Washington, DC- Congressman Steve King released the following statement after hosting the Grand Opening for his new Mason City Office today:

Congressman King at the Grand Opening of the Mason City office in the Fourth District today

"I was pleased to cut the ribbon to mark the opening of the Mason City office today in order to ensure that my staff is accessible to new constituents," said King. "We are available and ready to assist my constituents so that they have the information and resources they need. By opening this new office in Mason City, along with the other offices across the Fourth District, we are making sure that happens."
